3rd Transnational Meeting

On the 3rd and 4th of October, CEIPES hosted the QUALTRACK consortium for the third transnational meeting of the project, to finalize the quality rating questionnaire and the methodology to launch the testing phase.

The testing phase consists of the pilot preparation and launch. Partners agreed to launch the rating system in February 2024.

In this phase of the project, adult learning institutions will conduct a self-evaluation, and then they will be evaluated by an external assessor who will compare and analyze the data. The institutions, this way, can receive a QUALTRACK certification of quality depending on the rating obtained. The rating system not only allows the promotion of the institution but will help customers choose the best solution for them. The system ultimately aims at a uniform evaluation method in 5 European countries.

Methodology

Qualtrack offers a new approach to quality assurance and that is the quality rating of an institution. It is based on a set of criteria and questions. Each institution that successfully completes the questionnaire will be awarded with a three years validated certification of a quality-rated standard.

The Quality model and methodology will be common for all countries and for each country, specific adjustments will be done after piloting.
